- 6.2 Unless otherwise specified in an Associated Agreement, all invoices issued by the Supplier are due for payment by the Customer within 30 days following the date of the invoice.
- 6.3 All reasonable accommodation, travel and other expenses incurred in providing Products, Deliverables and Services to the Customer will be charged to the Customer provided that such expenses are identified and agreed in advance. Expenses will be invoiced on a monthly basis by the Supplier.

- 6.5 If the Customer wishes to dispute an invoice, it must notify the Supplier in writing within 14 days of the date of the invoice and provide details of the dispute. The Customer may withhold payment of the disputed part of an invoice only and must pay that part (or any amount subsequently agreed or determined to be the correct amount owing) promptly on resolution of the dispute.
- 6.6 Without limiting any other remedies available to the Supplier for the Customer's late payment or failure to pay any amount due, and subject to the applicable provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 and any amendment thereof, if any amount due is not paid by the Customer by the due date, the Supplier may:
- (a) charge the Customer interest calculated at the rate of 8% per annum above the rate of the Bank of England base rate on the balance of the amount due by the Customer from the due date until payment is received in full by the Supplier; and/or

2 Ownership and risk

- 2.1 Except as otherwise provided in the relevant Contract (and without limiting that Contract) and subject to the Intellectual Property provisions in that Contract, ownership of Tangible Products supplied or to be supplied to the Customer under a Contract for sale and purchase of the Tangible Products will not pass to the Customer until the Customer has paid in full for the Tangible Products and any other amounts owing to the Supplier whether under that Contract or any other Contract.
- 2.2 Until ownership of the Tangible Products passes to the Customer, the Customer must hold the Tangible Products on trust for the Supplier as bailee, not part with possession of them and only use them in the ordinary course of business.
- 2.3 The risk of loss of or deterioration or damage to the Tangible Products passes to the Customer on delivery of the Tangible Products to the Customer. If the Customer considers that, on delivery, the Tangible Products are damaged, the Customer must promptly notify the Supplier in writing. It is the Customer's responsibility to insure the Tangible Products as and from the date of delivery of the Tangible Products to the Customer.
- 2.4 Without limiting any other remedies that the Supplier may have in respect of failure or delay by the Customer to pay for the Tangible Products or any other Products, Deliverables or Services, if the Customer fails to pay for the Tangible Products by the due date(s) for payment, or if the Supplier considers that the Tangible Products are "at risk", the Supplier may (without limiting any other rights or remedies it may have) enter the Customer's premises at any time and without notice to take possession of the Tangible Products without incurring any liability to the Customer or any other person. The Customer is not permitted to revoke the permission granted in this clause. In the event that the Supplier takes possession of the Tangible Products under this clause, the Supplier will:
- (a) copy the Customer Data (if any) that is on the relevant Products excluding any Customer Data that is stored in cloud-based services (in the format reasonably determined by the Supplier at its discretion) ('Copy of Customer Data'); and
  - (b) make the Copy of Customer Data available to the Customer and notify the Customer accordingly, provided that the Supplier has no obligation to retain the Copy of Customer Data for more than 14 days after making it available to the Customer;
  - (c) after creating the Copy of Customer Data, delete the Customer Data from the Products, Deliverables and Services.

Nothing in this clause operates to transfer ownership of Customer Data to the Supplier.

8 Customer Data

- 8.1 Subject to clause 9.2, the Supplier will access the Customer Data only as required in the performance of the relevant Contract.
- 8.2 Without limiting clause 10 or clause 11.2, the Supplier will only access the Customer Data and disclose the Customer Data to law enforcement or government authorities to the extent required by law. If a request for Customer Data is made by a law enforcement agency or government authority, the Supplier will redirect the request to the Customer or if redirection is not permitted or feasible in the available time frame and unless legally prohibited from doing so, the Supplier will notify the Customer of the request as soon as practically possible.
- 8.3 Nothing in a Contract transfers ownership of the Customer Data to the Supplier.

9 Personal Data and Data Protection

- 9.1 The Customer consents to the Processing of Personal Data by the Supplier for the purposes of each Contract, in accordance with these terms and conditions including in particular the GDPR Attachment. Before providing Personal Data to the Supplier, the Customer will obtain all required consents from third parties (including the Customer's contacts, partners, distributors, administrators, and employees) under applicable Data Protection Laws.
- 9.2 To the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to applicable contractual rights and obligations, including the rights and obligations in the GDPR Attachment, Personal Data collected by the Supplier under these terms and conditions may be transferred, stored and processed in the United Kingdom and/or any other country (or countries) in which the Supplier maintains facilities or any other country in which the Supplier's contractors or service providers (including for example Microsoft and other third party vendors) maintain facilities.
- 9.3 In the event of any Personal Data Breach, the Supplier will comply with its obligations, including notification obligations, (if any), under applicable Data Protection Laws.

10 Confidential Information

- 10.1 Each party agrees to:

  - (b) ensure that all Confidential Information is protected at all times from unauthorised access or use by, or disclosure to, any third party or misuse, damage or destruction by any person.
- 10.2 A party may disclose the other party's Confidential Information if and to the extent required by law if it first notifies the other party of the obligation to disclose the Confidential Information, provided that a party is not required to notify the other party under this clause if it is not legally permitted to do so or if the timing within which the party is required by law to disclose the Confidential Information does not permit notification to the other party.

11 Intellectual property

- 11.1 The Supplier or its licensors own the Intellectual Property in the means, methods, processes and know-how used by the Supplier to provide the Products, Deliverables and Services and to otherwise perform the Supplier's obligations under the Associated Agreements.
- 11.2 The provisions relating to Intellectual Property ownership in relation to particular Products, Deliverables and Services are included in the relevant Associated Agreement.

12 Warranties

- 12.1 Each party warrants that it has all requisite right, power and authority to enter into each Contract.
- 12.2 Except as provided under clause 13.1 and in any express warranties contained in an Associated Agreement, to the extent permitted by law, all warranties, terms and conditions (including without limitation, warranties and conditions as to fitness for purpose and merchantability) implied by legislation or otherwise, are excluded by the Supplier.

13 Termination of Contracts

- 13.1 Except where a Contract has a fixed term (being a term with a specified time period) or where otherwise provided under a Contract, either party may terminate a Contract at any time without cause on giving 90 days' notice in writing to the other party.
- 13.2 Except for any termination barred under the applicable provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 and any amendment of that Act, either party may terminate a Contract immediately (or with effect from any later date that it may nominate) by written notice to the other party if:
- (a) one or more Insolvency Events occurs in relation to that other party. For the purposes of this clause, 'Insolvency Event' means, in respect of a party (other than for the purpose of solvent reconstruction or amalgamation):
    - i. a receiver, manager or liquidator is appointed over the party's undertaking or assets or the party enters into any assignment, composition or arrangement with its creditors; or
    - ii. the party is unable to pay its debts when due or is deemed unable to pay its debts under any law or suspends payment to its creditors.
  - (b) the other party commits a material breach of any of its obligations under the Contract and fails to remedy that breach within 30 days of prior written notice of such breach. For the purposes of this clause 14.2 (b), non-payment by the Customer for a period of 30 days or more after due date of any undisputed invoice constitutes a material breach by the Customer.
- 13.3 The Supplier may terminate the Contract without liability to the Customer by giving written notice if:
- (a) Any sum owing to the Supplier by the Customer under any of the provisions of the Contract is not paid within 14 days of the due date for payment;

- (c) the Supplier will deliver to the Customer all Deliverables for which the Customer has paid in full.

14.2 On any termination of a Contract, all clauses which by their nature survive termination, will survive the termination.

15 Liability and indemnity

15.1 The Supplier's liability under a Contract is limited to direct loss only, to the amount paid to the Supplier under that Contract in the six-month period preceding the event giving rise to the loss.

15.2 To the extent permitted by law, in no event is the Supplier liable for any indirect loss or for any loss of profits, lost savings, loss of data, business interruption, incidental or special damages, or for any consequential loss. In addition, the Supplier is not liable for any damages claimed by the Customer based on any third-party claim, including, but not limited to, any claim in negligence. In no event is the Supplier liable for any damages caused (whether directly or indirectly) by the Customer not accepting or not acting on a recommendation made to the Customer in writing by the Supplier or the Customer's failure to perform its responsibilities under the Contract.

15.3 The Customer indemnifies the Supplier against any costs (including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis, all and any court costs and witness fees and related legal expenses), expenses, claims, demands or liability whether direct, indirect or otherwise, and whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), equity or otherwise, arising out of, and must at the Supplier's request, and subject to clause 16.4 and any reasonable conditions imposed at the Supplier's discretion, at the Customer's own cost defend or settle, any claim, action or proceedings brought against the Supplier in connection with:

- (b) a breach by the customer of a Contract.

15.4 If the Supplier wishes to rely on an indemnity under clause 16.3, the Supplier:

- (b) will make no admission of liability regarding the Claim nor any offers of settlement regarding the Claim without the Customer's written approval;
- (c) may, at its discretion, grant control of the defence or settlement to the Customer;

  - ii. give the Customer sufficient authority and relevant information in its possession or control in order to assist the Customer to conduct the defence of the Claim and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise.

16 Dispute Resolution

16.1 In the event of any dispute arising between the parties in relation to a Contract, no party may commence any proceedings relating to the dispute (except where the party seeks urgent injunctive or interlocutory relief) unless that party has complied with the procedures in this clause 17.

16.2 The party initiating the dispute ("the first party") must provide written notice of the dispute to the other party ("the other party") and nominate in that notice the first party's representative for the negotiations. The other party must within fourteen days of receipt of the notice, give written notice to the first party naming its representative for the negotiations ("Other Party's Notice"). Each nominated representative will have authority to settle or resolve the dispute. The parties will co-operate with each other and endeavour to resolve the dispute through discussion and negotiation.

16.3 If the dispute is not resolved within one month following the date of the Other Party's Notice (or such longer period as may be agreed upon in writing by the parties), either party may utilise any other legal remedies available to it in seeking to resolve the dispute.

17 Non-Solicitation

17.1 Neither party will, without the written consent of the other party, solicit, employ, or otherwise engage the services of, the other party's personnel (including employees and contractors). This clause will apply from commencement of the first Contract between the parties and will continue until there has been no Contract between the parties for a continuous period of six months (and if there is subsequently a Contract between the parties the non-solicitation period will re-commence).

- 17.2 A party may as a condition of granting its consent under clause 18.1 above, require the other party to pay to it a fee of 30% of the person's gross annual remuneration to cover the cost of replacing the employee or contractor.

18 Notices

18.1 Any notice or other communication in connection with a Contract must be:

19.2 Where a party's obligations have been suspended pursuant to clause 20.1 for a period of 30 days or more, the other party may immediately terminate the Contract by giving notice in writing to the other party.

20 General

20.1 Assignment:

- (a) Subject to clause 21.1(b), neither the Customer nor the Supplier may assign its rights under a Contract without the prior written consent of the other party.
- (b) The Supplier may, without the consent of the Customer, assign its rights under a Contract to an assignee that it reasonably considers has the personnel, skills, experience and resources to perform the Contract. - (a) the amendment is in writing and signed by both parties (if the relevant Associated Agreement was signed by both parties); or
  - (b) the amendment is in writing and signed by the Customer (if the relevant Associated Agreement was such that only the Customer needed to sign the Associated Agreement); or
  - (c) the amendment is in writing and accepted in the same manner that, in accordance with the Associated Agreement, the Associated Agreement was made.
- 20.8 Waiver: No exercise or failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right or remedy by a party will constitute a waiver by that party of that or any other available right or remedy.
- 20.9 Partial invalidity: If any provision of a Contract or its application to any party or circumstance is or becomes invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of the Contract and its application will not be affected and will remain enforceable to the greatest extent permitted by law.

  - (b) assume or create any obligations on behalf of the other party.

21      Governing Law

GDPR ATTACHMENT

Under each Contract, the Customer engages the Supplier to provide the Services and in providing the Services, the Supplier will or may be required to Process Personal Data on behalf of the Customer. To the extent such Processing of Personal Data is an integral part of the Supplier's Services and the same is done under explicit instructions of the Customer, the Customer will be a 'Controller' and the Supplier will be a 'Processor' – as defined in and as used for the purposes of the GDPR. As such, Article 28(3) and 28(4) of the GDPR requires that the details in this attachment are included in the contract between the Customer and the Supplier, including the subject matter and duration of the Processing, the nature and purpose of the Processing, the type of Personal Data and categories of data subjects (see Appendix 1).

To the extent such Processing of Personal Data is not an integral part of the Supplier's Service, or the Processing is done for any internal business requirements of the Supplier, the Supplier will be a 'Controller' for the purposes of the GDPR. In all such circumstances, the Supplier shall abide by Articles 24-26 of the GDPR which sets out the role and responsibility of a Controller.

The terms used in this attachment have the meanings given to them in the main definition section of these terms and conditions or in clause 13 of this attachment, or in the GDPR if not defined in these terms and conditions or in this attachment.

1 Processing of Personal Data

21.2 The Supplier will:

- (a) Instructions from Customer: in providing Services under a Contract, Process Personal Data only on the Customer's documented instructions (as provided in clause 2 and in appendix 1 to this attachment or otherwise in writing) unless required to do so by the Data Protection Laws in which case the Supplier will inform the Customer of that legal requirement before Processing unless the Supplier is prohibited from informing the Customer by that law;
- (a) Confidentiality: ensure that the Supplier's personnel who are authorised to Process the Personal Data have obligations of confidentiality to the Supplier (including as required in clause 3 below) in respect of the Personal Data or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality;
- (b) Security: comply with the security obligations in clause 4 below;
- (c) Subprocessors: comply with the provisions relating to Subprocessors in clause 5 below;
- (d) Data subjects' rights: provide assistance to the Customer with responding to data subjects' rights in accordance with clause 6 below;
- (e) Assist Customer: comply with its obligations to assist the Customer in relation to security of Personal Data and data protection impact assessments and prior consultation in accordance with clause 7 below;
- (f) Deleting and returning data: after the provision of Services related to Processing of Personal Data has ended, at the choice of the Customer either delete or return to the Customer all of that Personal Data and delete existing copies unless the Data Protection Laws require storage of Personal Data in accordance with clause 8 below; and

- (g) Compliance and audits: make available to the Customer all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with Article 28 of the GDPR and allow for and contribute to audits including inspections conducted by the Customer or another auditor mandated from time to time, in accordance with clause 9 below. The Supplier will immediately inform the Customer if, in its opinion, an instruction received from the Customer in relation to an audit under this clause 1.1(h) infringes the Data Protection Laws.

2 Instructions from Customer

2.1 The Customer instructs the Supplier (and authorises the Supplier to instruct each Subprocessor) to:

- (a) Process Personal Data; and
- (b) in particular, transfer Personal Data to any country or territory, as reasonably necessary for the provision of the Services and consistent with and in compliance with the relevant Contract.

2.2 The Customer warrants and represents that it is and will at all relevant times remain duly and effectively authorised to give the instruction set out in clause 2.1 on behalf of the Customer.
